AMEND Senate Bill No. 1236

House Bill No. 1031*

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 41-21-236, is amended by deleting subdivision (a)(2)(A) and substituting:

(A)

(i) Each inmate who exhibits good institutional behavior or who exhibits satisfactory performance within a program may be awarded time credits toward the sentence imposed.

(ii) The credits awarded may vary between one (1) day and sixteen (16) days for each month served, with not more than eight (8) days for each month served for good institutional behavior and not more than eight (8) days for each month served for satisfactory program performance.

(iii) Credits for good institutional behavior or for satisfactory program performance may be awarded by the warden based on criteria established by the department; however, the credits are subject to review and removal by the inmate disciplinary oversight board.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 41-21-236(a)(3), is amended by designating the existing language as subdivision (a)(3)(A) and adding the following new subdivision (a)(3)(B):

(B) Sentence credits awarded pursuant to subdivision (a)(3)(A) are subject to review and removal by the inmate disciplinary oversight board.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 41-21-236(a)(5), is amended by redesignating the current language as subdivision (a)(5)(A) and adding the following new subdivision (a)(5)(B):

(B) Sentence credits removed pursuant to subdivision (a)(5)(A) are subject to review by the inmate disciplinary oversight board.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 41-21-236(a)(6), is amended by redesignating the current language as subdivision (a)(6)(A) and adding the following new subdivision (a)(6)(B):

(B) Sentence credits removed pursuant to subdivision (a)(6)(A) are subject to review by the inmate disciplinary oversight board.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 41-21-236(e), is amended by adding the following new subdivision (4):

(4) Sentence credits awarded pursuant to this subsection (e) are subject to review by the inmate disciplinary oversight board.

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 41-21-236(j), is amended by deleting the last sentence and substituting:

This section is applicable notwithstanding the powers granted pursuant to this title to reduce prison overcrowding.

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 41, Chapter 21, is amended by adding the following as a new part:

41-21-1001.

As used in this part:

- (1) "Board" means the inmate disciplinary oversight board;
- (2) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of correction;
- (3) "Department" means the department of correction;
- (4) "Executive director" means the officer employed by the board as the chief administrative officer of the agency; and

(5) "Sentence credits" means any credit, whether called that or not, that results in a reduction of the amount of time an inmate must serve on the original sentence or sentences.

41-21-1002.

(a) There is created a full-time, autonomous inmate disciplinary oversight board. The purpose of the board is to review the grant, denial, and removal of inmate sentence credits by a warden for good institutional behavior and to determine whether sentence credits previously awarded should be removed for commission of a major infraction designated by the department as a Class A disciplinary offense or for an inmate's refusal to participate in an assignment.

(b)

(1) The board is composed of nine (9) members who shall be appointed by the governor, the speaker of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives as follows:

(A) Three (3) members of the board shall be appointed by the governor;

(B) Three (3) members of the board shall be appointed by the speaker of the senate; and

(C) Three (3) members of the board shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

(2) The appointing authorities in subdivision (b)(1) shall appoint one (1) member from each grand division of the state.

(c) The board is autonomous in structure and has the authority to perform all administrative functions necessary to carry out its duties, including the submission of budget requests to the commissioner of finance and administration and the submission of personnel actions to the commissioner of human resources.

(d) In all respects, the board is separate functionally and administratively from any other agency. In performing the administrative and financial functions necessary to its operations, the board and its employees are subject to the budgetary, accounting, personnel, purchasing, and audit requirements, as well as other administrative requirements, applicable to all state departments and agencies pursuant to title 4, chapters 3 and 4.

(e) In making the initial appointments made under this section, the speaker of the senate shall appoint one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2028; one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2027; and one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2026. The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2028; one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2027; and one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2026. The governor shall appoint one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2028; one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2027; and one (1) member to a term expiring on January 1, 2026. Thereafter, all members shall serve six-year terms and are eligible for reappointment.

(f) In considering persons for appointment, the appointing authority shall give preference to candidates with training, education, or experience in the criminal justice system, law, corrections, behavioral science, or mental health. A member of the board shall not hold any other salaried public office, whether elective or appointive, and a member of the board shall not engage for pay in any other business or profession.

(g)

(1) Vacancies occurring in an office of a member of the board before the expiration of a term by reason of death, resignation, removal, or any other reason must be filled in the same manner as the regular appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(2) An appointed member of the board serves in such capacity until the expiration of the term to which the member was appointed and until the member's successor is duly appointed and qualified.

(h) The governor, the speaker of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, or the attorney general and reporter may seek the removal of a member of the board for knowing or willful misconduct in office or for knowing or willful neglect or failure to perform a duty enjoined upon a member of the board by a law of this state or for the conviction of a crime that constitutes a felony under the laws of this state. The removal must be accomplished through the removal procedure provided in title 8, chapter 47.

(i) The members of the board shall elect one (1) member of the board to serve as its chair for a term of two (2) years beginning January 1 of the appropriate year. The chair shall direct the operation of the board and shall fulfill the functions established by statute, unless duties and responsibilities are otherwise assigned under this part. The board may designate one (1) of its members to act as chair during the absence or incapacity of the chair, and when so acting, the member so designated has and performs all the powers and duties of the chair of the board.

(a) The board has those powers and duties necessary and proper to enable the board to fully and effectively carry out this part, including, but not limited to:

(1) The authority to select and recommend to the appropriate state officials the employment or transfer of all personnel required for the operation of the board; except the initial transfer of a preferred service employee shall not result in impairment, interruption, or diminution of employee rights, salary, benefits, leave accumulation, or employment. The commissioner of human resources is authorized to determine if there has been any impairment of rights, salary, benefits, leave accumulation, or employment as a result of a transfer. A preferred service employee may seek redress of a determination through a request for a declaratory order by the commissioner of human resources pursuant to § 4-5-223;

(2) The authority to promulgate reasonable substantive and procedural rules in accordance with the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5;

(3) The authority to develop and implement guidelines for reviewing the grant, denial, and removal of good institutional behavior credits. The board shall review and reevaluate the guidelines at least annually and provide copies of the guidelines to the governor, the speaker of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the commissioner of correction, and the appropriate standing committees of the senate and the house of representatives;

(4) The authority to prescribe all forms to be used by the board in the transaction of the board's business;

(5) The authority to adopt an official seal by which the board's acts and proceedings are authenticated, and of which a court or other officials concerned with the actions of the board shall take judicial notice. The certificate of the chair of the board, under seal and attested to by the executive director, must be accepted in any judicial or administrative proceeding as adequate and sufficient proof of the acts and proceedings of the board as described in the certificate;

(6) The authority to employ other employees and to incur such other expenses, within the limits of appropriations, as necessary for the proper discharge of the board's duties;

(7) The authority to work with the department of correction in developing criteria for the award of sentence credits for good institutional behavior;

(8) The duty to keep appropriate records of all of the board's official actions and to make them accessible in accordance with law and the regulations of the board;

(9) The duty to adopt written long-range goals and objectives. The goals and objectives must be reaffirmed or changed, as appropriate, by the board at least once each year;

(10) The duty to adopt written policies and procedures to govern the board's internal operations. It is the legislative intent that the board has the authority to freely adopt policies and procedures to meet the board's particular needs. Prior to final board adoption of the policies and procedures and prior to change, the board shall submit a draft to the attorney general and reporter for review and comment; and

(11) The authority to employ staff attorneys who are licensed to practice law in this state and to employ others as the board deems necessary.

(b) As soon as is convenient after appointment, the members of the board shall meet and organize. The members shall appoint an executive director who shall be the chief administrative officer of the board and whose duties include:

(1) Supervising the scheduling of board meetings;

(2) Assisting the board in the formulation, development, and implementation of procedures and policies;

(3) Assisting in the preparation of the necessary forms and maintaining the records required for decisions of the board;

(4) Conducting conferences and managing correspondence with interested persons;

(5) Supervising all employees of the board; and

(6) Developing and maintaining communication and cooperation between the board and other state agencies.

41-21-1004.

(a) The permanent office of the board is in Nashville.

(b) The board shall meet at least monthly at a time and place prescribed by the board. The board must take all votes by public ballot or public roll call. Secret ballots or secret roll calls are not permitted.

(c) The salary of each member of the board is one hundred twenty thousand dollars ($120,000) annually with a cost of living adjustment every two (2) years. The salaries of employees of the board are set by the board. The requirements of § 40-28-103(a) regarding personnel procedures apply to all actions under this subsection (c).

(d) A majority of members of the board constitutes a quorum for official administrative business.

(e) When appropriate, the members of the board and the board's employees shall be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary travel expenses in accordance with the state comprehensive travel regulations.

41-21-1005.

The warden of each prison and all officers and employees of each prison and all other public officials shall at all times cooperate with the board and shall furnish to the board, its officers, and employees information as may be necessary to enable the board to perform its functions, and the wardens and other employees shall at all times give the members of the board, its officers, and employees free access to all prisoners confined in the prisons, workhouses, and jails of this state.

Notwithstanding another law to the contrary, the department of correction is responsible for calculating the sentence expiration date and the earliest release date of a felony offender sentenced to the department of correction and a felony offender sentenced to confinement in a county jail or workhouse for one (1) or more years.

SECTION 8. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-29-247(a), is amended by inserting the following as a new subdivision:

() Inmate disciplinary oversight board, created by § 41-21-1001;

SECTION 9. Sections 1 through 6 of this act take effect January 1, 2024, the public welfare requiring it. For purposes of appointing members and organization, Section 7 of this act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it. For all other purposes, Section 7 of this act takes effect January 1, 2024, the public welfare requiring it. Section 8 of this act takes effect January 1, 2024, the public welfare requiring it.
